ALSO FOR ALL

Consumers of Ink.

The undersigned begs to inform the highly respected community of this city and the country, that he has establish ed an

INK MANUFACTORY.

No. 50, Calle 25 de Mayo.

And is prepared to sell as good Ink, as any made in any part of the globe, and warranted to retain its beautiful jet black color which it has at the moment when used, at 50 p. $ less than the same can be bought at any other house.

People under the impression, that they pay their $20 mjc for a quart bottle of English Ink, can have the same proved, that most of the Ink sold for English, is made in this country, and imposed upon the public as such. But I am not ashamed to put my own Name on the labels, being fully convinced that my Ink is of a much superior quality, and possess more virtues than most of the Inks.

I.—It is of a very rich black at the moment when used.

II.—Retains its color.

III.—Runs freely off the pen.

IV.—A preserver of the eyes to those, who have much to write at night because they need not so often their eyesight, to see what they have written.

For the reasons explained, I hope that any prejudice generally entertained against Home Manufacture will be laid aside, and all I ask is, to try the same which will be for the benefit of the buyer, and the country, in assisting Home Industry.

N. B. A limited left at the office will be punctually attended to and delivered free of any charges.

"All false quarrels, till vert men moderate direct."—Cicero.

FRIDAY, APRIL 24, 1863.

FORBIDDEN FRUIT.

The despotism of Rosas was no real freedom, if we contrast it with the absurd limitations which some of our colleagues would place on our editorial functions. From the criminals of Canada Gomez down to the present, our journal has found itself in antagonism with its two senior colleagues: because it will not bow down to the golden calf which they choose to call public opinion.

Our great fault would seem to consist in exposing abuses to the light of day; and if we could only be induced to throw an oblivious veil over public nuisances, unpunished crime, and magisterial shortcomings, there is no question that the Standard would become highly popular among a certain demo-stic tive, but questionable, class of citizens.

There is no second accusation, to which we humbly plead—Peccavimus—almost as heinous as the former. We are a bigoted champion of Progress and Industry, we have denounced politics and animalculæ statesmen, we have sought to overran the republic with European ideas, and we have conspired against the rule of a traditional anarchy.

Our bags of cotton seed are as dangerous as Guy Fawkes' gunpowder, since they are destined to bring in their train foreign immigration and other such evils. Our guns are infernal machines, like those of Pieschi, which threaten annihilation to provincial warriors and city nullpbilities.

To carry out such nefarious plans we have had the presumption to support the candidature of an experienced statesman, whose sympathies are supposed to have a foreign tendency to Reform. This gentleman is condemned by the Nacio al: 1st, he is not a Doctor—heaven bless the mark! 2nd, his head is arithmetical, and therefore unfit for noble ends; 3rd, he made a very adverse speech on the accession of the national debt to the religious, which had better have been repudiated; 4th he has not had much campaigning, and is not able to smell a candle at 30 poles; 5th, he never writes in the newspapers, and hence is neither a patriot, nor a scholar; 6th, he talks English, and is only fit for a British colonial governor; 7th, he took some part in the Cordoba rail way bill, and thinks the currency far from perfect.

Our evening colleague not alone sets his brand upon the candidate, but revile the English paper for daring to have a voice in the election. It happens, however, that Sor. Ricetra is proposed by the "Tribuno and Siglo" and we merely echo so happy a choice. Although the English interests here at stake are something more than those of a penny-a liner or coffee-house declaimer, we waive all right to name a candidate. We might name in Argentine politics, but formerly look on. It is nevertheless remarkable that the name for which we are held as sponsor, is the only one possessing three votes out of the five which compose our local Press.

The "Nacional" does not mention any one in juxta-position with Sor. Riestra; we regret this, as the commission must be favorable to that esteemed gentleman, who, (unlike one or least of his contrymen,) has no love for acquaintance. The other competitors named by the "Nacion Argentina" are highly respectable characters in their own way, but we frankly believe less fitted to fill the honored post of Governor of Buenos Ayres.—Time will tell.

BANDA ORIENTAL.

We have a letter from Paysandu of the 21st inst. stating that the drums were beating to arms and the troops and National guards at their quarters, but the population did not know the reason.

The Abil el Kader arrived on Wednesday in our port reports that, passing the Colonia, heavy firing of musketry was heard near the coast.

At Montevideo they are barricading the streets in preparation of the coming conflict, and the leading members of Colorado party were received by the police Sr. Costa y Lara former Minister of Finance was taken prisoner, and Sr. Costa made the police-officebut was released.

The invasion causes unusual activity; urgent measures were taken to be beforehand with the rebels. Lucas Moreno, candidate for the Ministerio

MISCELLANEA.

A correspondent of a London journal declares that on last Sunday week he had for his fellow-passenger, on the Brighton railway, no less a person age than the Lord Bishop of Oxford—one of the bishops who signed the memorial against Sunday travelling! He thinks his non-clerical appearance.

The Armonia announces that the Church of Santa Cita, at Palermo, a single gospel of which cost 60,000 dollars, has been turned into a barrack hospital; while the Church of Santa Maria della Victoria, which is of the finest architecture, has become a barrack, and even a stable for the mules of the military train.

barles E. Krause sets teeth by a new intention, amber, which is found superior to every other mode. It accommodates itself to the gums and palate much better than gold, which requires springs. A set of teeth in amber, after two days, serves for mastication, spunk ing, and lasts a life time.

My collection of artificial teeth is very fine, and cannot be distinguished from natural set. I will also clean teeth with great care.

I have a number of instrument for extracting roots of teeth, also for stuffing, the same with gold, silver, &c, which I guarantee for a number of years.
